School Mission and Goals

CVMS is committed to excellence. Students become self-directed, independent learners in a nurturing environment. Learning is predicated upon the principles of active participation and shared responsibility among students, parents and school. School climate is important to a positive learning environment. By implementing CVMS' affective goal, BLT (Behaving & Learning Together), and the use of agenda books incorporating "The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens", school climate continues to improve.

On Campus Incidents 25

The majority of our incidents were related to truancy issues. We have implemented a reward program for students with perfect attendance. On a quarterly basis students with perfect attendance are part of a drawing to attend one of the professional athletic events. The few fighting incidents were resolved through guidance counseling, suspension and a re-entry program that includes reflection of the situation and what could be done differently in the future. We didn't have any incidents that in
